Our speaker, Mary Cobb, will discuss the worldwide refugee situation, the US refugee resettlement program, and Kentucky Refugee Ministries' services in central Kentucky.

Mary is the Director of the Lexington office of Kentucky Refugee Ministries (KRM), a role she began in 2016. Prior to joining KRM, she worked mostly in international development, global health, and humanitarian assistance. Her international experience includes time in Mexico, Kenya, Lesotho, Jamaica, Senegal, Pakistan, West Bank/Gaza, and Yemen, as well as numerous other countries. She was a Peace Corps Volunteer for two years, and a Foreign Service Officer with the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) for nine years. She has a BA from Bellarmine College and an MPH from Tulane University, and completed her doctoral coursework focused on U.S. health policy at the University of Minnesota. Mary grew up in Henderson, Kentucky.

PCUSA and its members are long-time supporters of refugee resettlement programs, both through Church World Service and through KRM and other non-profits across the country directly. The theme will emphasize both the humanitarian need for resettlement services to refugees, and the benefits refugees bring to our communities when they do settle here.
