Seeking Stated Supply Pastor (19.75 hours per week)

Carlisle Presbyterian Church is a small but committed and music-loving congregation (under 100 members) located 35 miles northeast of Lexington, Kentucky. Our town slogan is, “A small town with a big heart” and what our congregation lacks in numbers we make up for in heart. Though our congregation is primarily elderly we do have younger members who work hard to carry on the traditions of the past while starting new traditions. We have a traditional service and are immensely proud of our historic tracker pipe organ and beautiful stained-glass windows. We have a wonderful choir and an organist who adds energy and excitement to our services.

Our community has a public school system that is consistently successful in sports as well as academic endeavors. We are a farming community, but we have local doctors, drug stores and public health facilities as well as small industries in our community.

We are seeking a Stated Supply Pastor for approximately 19.75 hours per week who would assume the following responsibilities:

- Lead worship and preach each Sunday
- Administer the Sacraments of the Lord’s Supper and Baptism
- Moderate session and congregational meetings
- Visiting hospital, nursing home and shut-in visitation
- Perform marriage and funeral services upon request
- Represent church in local ministerial association
- Community involvement as befits time and schedule

If you feel God is calling you to our community please contact Lois Hamm, Clerk of Session @ ljhamm@bellsouth.net or (859) 749-6828.
